HISTORY IN THE MAKING – IMAGES OF EVESHAM AND THE VALE.

Can anyone help me?

I am one of 20 people taking part in a project to document life in and around the Vale of Evesham in 2010. We all know of times where we say, "That's changed," or "What was there before?". Well, wouldn't it be great to have pictures showing what is here now, so that people in the future can look back and see Broadway as it is in 2010?

I am looking to take pictures of anything that might undergo change: building projects, shop fronts etc. I am also interested in photographing events, activities on the Green and even people doing everyday things – anything really that will be of interest to future generations.

At the end of the project all the pictures will be donated to the Almonry Museum in Evesham as a record of life in 2010.

If you would like to know more, think you can help, or you have any old photographs that you wouldn't mind me using in an exhibition at the end of the year then please get in touch; rachel@sproink.co.uk or 858035. You can read more about the project and see some of our pictures at www.ourevesham.net. (This project is supported by Evesham Town Council).

'LET THERE BE LIGHT'.....AT NIGHT TIME'

Responding to a notice from the Parish Council (Broadway Newsletter January 2010) for residents to report streetlights not functioning correctly, one of our readers decided to thoroughly investigate the main roads of the village at various times to check which lights were on in daylight hours and which remained unlit. His investigations over a six week period revealed many lamps were on all day, some permanently unlit, some coming on and switching off for inexplicable reasons.

A 4-page report sent to Worcestershire Highways department was formally acknowledged by an official who stated, 'Following a site inspection on 4 March 2010, it can be confirmed that the switching on of the lights does seem to be earlier than usually observed. As a result of the inspection, the Clerk to the Parish Council has been contacted and it is suggested that, if funds allow, a programme of replacing the outdated equipment with new more energy saving photoelectric cells (light sensors) may be worth considering.'

Our local investigator, while welcoming this official response, said there was no comment on a reference in his report that perhaps Worcestershire CC should note what is happening in Gloucestershire where, in an effort to save on fuel costs and reduce carbon emissions, some street lights will be turned off between midnight and 5.30am. This is currently being tried in Chipping Campden after consultation with residents and police.

(NB: The Parish Council owns much of the road lighting in Broadway and Worcestershire Highways maintain it under agreement with the Parish.)

BROADWAY FIRST SCHOOL

Spring Term has been an interesting one for us. You will have seen the commencement of the building work in the playground near to Leamington Road; this is the start of the Children's Centre which will be a great asset to the village when it is completed.

What you will not have seen is that the School had an Ofsted inspection during the term, and this is always very stressful for all of the staff at the school. What we can proudly report is that the School was rated as "good" in almost every aspect; the only areas where it was only "satisfactory" were to do with community cohesion, and it is very difficult to demonstrate that we are an inclusive and outward-looking school when our intake does not include many from minority ethnic groups. In terms of what the parents want to know, the reports includes: "Standards have remained above average in reading, writing and mathematics at the end of Year 2 and Year 5 since the last inspection, and pupils continue to achieve well and make good progress throughout the school"; "Teaching was good in all the lessons observed during the inspection"; "Pastoral care for pupils is outstanding, as shown by one parent's comment, 'I love the way every child matters to the teachers.'" The full inspection report may be seen on Ofsted's website.

The school's governors are very proud of what Broadway First School has achieved, and Mr Appleby and the teachers and classroom assistants should be very pleased that Ofsted has recognised the excellence of their work.

BIG JIM BALL

Big Jim was a village character. Born at the top of the hill, he lived and worked in and around the village throughout his whole life. In recent years, Jim was often to be seen watching the world go by from one of the village benches either outside Budgens or by the war memorial.

When Jim died, we wanted to make a permanent memorial to our good friend and a bench could not be more appropriate. Through a monumental effort from friends, family, customers and staff at the Swan, the Broadway Hotel, the Crown & Trumpet, the Horse & Hound, and the Snowhill Arms, the money has been raised and the bench is now in place on the edge of The Green.

Sincere thanks everyone who contributed.

LUCIA NOVELS AND BROADWAY

Cllr. Liz Eyre tells us that in the Granada TV series Broadway was indeed used as 'Riseholme', Orchard Farm was the garden and the Eyre's Rolls was also prominently featured.

MOON CRATERS

Cllr. Eyre has also pointed out that as Back Lane is not an adopted highway, just a countryside right of way, it does not come under the same regulations as the main roads when it comes to repairing potholes – so be prepared to negotiate your way between the 'moon craters' for a little longer!

ACTIVITY PARK

The tree planting is now complete and three English oak benches have been added, thanks to funding by the Broadway Trust.

FRANCIS MILLET AND THE BROADWAY CONNECTION

Visitors to the Churchyard on Snowhill Road may have missed something as they passed under the Lychgate, where the following inscription appears:

FRANCISCO DAVIS MILLET VIRO IN ARTIBVS LITTERISQVE PRAESTANTI
 QVI NAVI TITANICA FRACTA DVM SPEM TIMIDIS AFFERT MORTEM LAETVS OPPETIVIT
 HOC MONVMENTVM SVAVIS AMICITIAE MEMORES SODALES PONENDVM CVRAVERVNT

Roughly and freely translated, this reads:

IN TRIBUTE TO FRANCIS DAVIS MILLET A MAN OF EXCELLENCE IN THE ARTS AND IN LITERATURE
 HE MET HIS DEATH WITH FORTITUDE AS THE SHIP TITANIC SANK
 WHILST STILL GIVING HOPE TO THOSE WHO FEARED FOR THEIR LIVES
 HIS DEAR FRIENDS SOUGHT THE DEDICATION OF THIS MEMORIAL IN FOND MEMORY OF HIS TREASURED FELLOWSHIP

Francis Davis Millet was the host of a small group of artists, including Americans, who congregated in Broadway at the end of the 19th Century; Millet lived at both Farnham House and Russell House; the group included John Singer Sargent, whose painting 'Carnation, Lily, Lily, Rose' is famed for its Broadway setting.

Millet was born in Massachusetts, USA in 1846. He was a drummer boy with the Union forces in the Civil War and graduated from Harvard with a Degree in Literature in 1869. He became a correspondent on the Russian-Turkish War (1877-1878) for several newspapers and married Elizabeth or 'Lily' in 1879; Millet's most famous painting is perhaps 'Between Two Fires', which like many others of the period, was executed in the 14th Century Abbot's Grange, which Millet salvaged from complete disrepair, apparently with the help of William Morris, and which became his studio for many years.

In April 1912, Millet booked first class passage on the maiden voyage of the Royal Mail Ship Titanic en route home to the United States. She sank on 15 April, having struck an iceberg. Millet was last seen helping women and children into lifeboats. His body was recovered and he is buried at East Bridgewater Central Cemetery, Plymouth County, Massachusetts.

BRICKS FOR BROADWAY STATION

Further to the report featured on the front page of the last edition of the newsletter, the Gloucestershire and Warwickshire Railway is pleased to have received a most generous offer of good quality imperial bricks which can be recovered from the old church school at Christchurch in Coleford, in exchange for a suitable donation to their church funds.

This means that we are now able to put part of our brick fund to good use in a most efficient manner and we thank all those who donated funds a couple of years ago when the prospect of rebuilding Broadway was first given support. This fund is carefully banked and we are always on the look-out for suitable bricks.

If anyone knows of good quality imperial size red or blue engineering bricks that could be recovered for re-use, please contact Alan Bielby, via email to enquiries@gsr.com or by mail at The Railway Station, Toddington, GL54 5DT. You can also call the station on 01242 621405 if you prefer, or contact John Blofield on 01386 584366.
