DAVID FOLKES – MBE

Our photo shows a happy David Folkes displaying his MBE insignia at a celebration organised by the local branch of the British Legion.

He was presented with the award by her majesty the Queen at a ceremony at Buckingham Palace on June 23rd, with his wife and daughters proudly looking on.

CAN BROADWAY WIN THIS YEAR'S WYCHAVON PARISH GAMES?

The answer is YES OF COURSE WE CAN but only if we take part in every event.

Broadway's participation in the Wychavon Parish Games is funded and supported by Broadway Parish Council. The 15 sports making up the Parish Games in 2011 will be as follows:-

Angling, Bell Boating, Bowls, Cribbage, Cross Country, Ladies Darts, Mens Darts, Dominoes, Five A Side Football, Petanque, Pool, Ladies Rounders, Skittles, Junior Table Tennis, Senior Table Tennis. Participants MUST live in the Parish of Broadway.

We can find people to take part in most of the events but struggle with the ANGLING and JUNIOR TABLE TENNIS. This year's Angling event will be held on Saturday 17th September, on the waters of the River Avon in Evesham. The Junior Table Tennis (under 17) will be held on Sunday 2nd October at St Egwin's Middle School in Evesham.

If you are able to take part in these or other events, please contact Joan Parfitt on 01386 858714 for details.

GARDENERS' DELIGHT – SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!

GARDEN COMPETITION

Last year the Garden Competition had to be canceled because too few people entered. It would be nice if the event could take place again this year. It costs nothing to enter and gardens do not have to be Chelsea Show standard.

Melvyn Burdett was a keen supporter, and his family is donating a cup for the small garden category, a competition that he won so many times. There are also prizes for containers, hanging baskets, patios, large gardens and business premises.

Judging will take place on Sunday, 17th July. Entry forms are available from the Tourist Information Centre and from Cotswold Building Supplies.

BROADWAY HORTICULTURAL SHOW

This year the Show will be held on Saturday, 10th September on The Green. Show schedules will be available this month from Cotswold Building Supplies, Collins Butchers, the Library and the TIC.

This year, men are being further encouraged to participate with the opportunity to do a flower arrangement as well as bake a cake! A further addition is the opportunity to exhibit hen or duck eggs.

The ever-popular Chipping Campden Swing Band will be playing between 2 and 4p.m. and the ladies of St Michael's Church will again be providing refreshments. As usual, there will be stalls promoting local and national worthy causes and charities. On the assumption that the Show itself makes a modest profit, this will be donated to charities nominated by the Show Committee.

There will be no tombola, so the Broadway Garden Club are having an enhanced stand selling bulbs, winter bedding and perennials. If you have any material suitable for potting up now, please let the Show or Garden Club chairman, know on 852428. We will be delighted to accept your offerings.

In recent years, the Broadway Show has gone from strength to strength but alas (it must be admitted) 'anno domini' are taking its toll of some members of the organising committee. Apart from an involvement on show day itself and on the Friday preceding, the commitment is not arduous and, without wanting to appear discriminating, we need a strong man! Please telephone Roger Bailey (852872) if you would like to be involved.

See you on The Green, on a hopefully dry and bright day!

CALLING ALL FRUIT AND VEG GROWERS!

Once again, Russell's Restaurant and The Workshop are happy to use your surplus fruit and veg. in their summer menus – with a suitable token of their appreciation, of course. So do get in touch if you have something to offer. Their new Head Chef, Damian Clisby, is especially keen to incorporate local produce into his menus.

Damian joined Russell's and The Workshop at the beginning of June. His most recent position was at The Cotswold House Hotel, Chipping Campden. He is now settled in the Cotswolds with wife, Rosie and sons, Vinnie and Bill, after a career that has included working for Caprice Holdings in London, where he was Head Chef at The Rivington Grill, together with positions at some of London's most notable restaurants including Pied a Terre and Thyme.

BROADWAY UNITED CHARITIES with SIR ARCHIBALD DENNIS FLOWER'S TRUST

Registered Charity Number 227676

Did you know that the pretty terrace of three cottages just to the right of Broadway Hotel with gardens fronting onto the Green, are owned by Broadway United Charities? This is a registered charity, overseen by a group of trustees drawn from the Parish and the Parish Church, including the vicar of Broadway as Ex-officio Trustee.

There were originally ten charities, a number of which were founded in the 1800s, but the earliest going back to 1729! The charities listed were: Sir Archibald Dennis Flower's Trust, which had purchased the almshouses in 1939, Church House, William Dave's Gift, John Knowles, Thomas Fewson Eagles, Miss Rebecca Coombe's Gift, Ann Bedford, Thomas William Wilson, Lady Hilda McNeill Memorial Charity and Dr Beadle's Bequest. These trusts were generally formed by bequests made by each individual named in their will.

In 1965, the Charity Commissioners approved a scheme to administer all the charities under the title of Broadway United Charities and the funds were to be used for the general benefit of the poor in Broadway, and comprised a long list of benefits, including gifts of coal! To simplify matters, a resolution was passed in 1996 that grants of money could be made, or items, services or facilities could be purchased or provided, which is calculated to reduce the need, hardship or distress of persons resident in the Parish of Broadway.

Today, the interest from the funds is used to make such payments and although not a large fund, Broadway United Charities are able to assist in a modest way and every request is considered. The cottages are each let to a tenant and although small, they provide a comfortable and convenient dwelling place in the heart of the village.

The trustees would like to draw the attention of the residents in Broadway to this charity, so that where there is a need, this can be considered. All requests are treated in a confidential manner. Of course, should you wish to remember Broadway United Charities in your will, then, we will be very pleased to hear from you! Our treasurer is Kevin Beasley, who is also the Parish Clerk. He can be found in the Council offices: should anyone wish to know more, please do contact him or speak to me. Margaret Deakin, Chairman, Broadway United Charities.
