BROADFEST 2013

With 'X Factor' winner Steve Brookstein headlining along with a huge food festival, Broadway plans to celebrate the summer in style with the best the Cotswolds has to offer in food and music. Broadway Parish Council and local music impresario Gary Thompson have teamed up to put on a show to remember for the local community.

This family free event includes pony rides, face painting, street entertainers and over 60 food stalls selling mouth watering fayre up and down the High Street. The stage is set for artists from all over the country to converge on Broadway, including the first ever 'X Factor' winner Steve Brookstein, who has been in great demand since winning the show back in 2004. Steve is finalising his most current album which he will showcase at Broadfest.

They will be supported by Ian Barnes of The Lonsands from Newcastle upon Tyne who have just finished touring with The Jam and Ocean Colour Scene, nationally acclaimed rock choir subject of a recent ITV1 documentary, soprano Kirsty Michele Anderson who has just been offered a place at the Royal Academy of Music, seen by many insiders as the next Katherine Jenkins. Local artists include duos Hanna-h from Evesham and Mawa and the Melo-d from London, 18 year old Amelia Underwood from Stratford, 16 year old acoustic sensation Sam Jones from Stroud, 22 year old Jennifer Ludlow from Pershore, 16 year old Harrison Bruce from Broadway, along with local bands Isbourne and The Blues Anoraks. Broadfest are also expecting some 'W Factor' finalists to add to the mix.

Cheltenham singer Vince Freeman, who was a finalist on BBC's 'The Voice' will close the festival on the Sunday afternoon.

BROADWAY HORTICULTURAL & CRAFT SHOW 2013

By the time you read this article Schedules of exhibits for the annual Broadway

Horticultural & Craft Show will be available in several village outlets, for example: Cotswold Building Supplies, the Library, Tourist Information Centre and Collins Butchers.

You may not keep geese in the back garden (See class O4 - 1 Goose Egg) but nevertheless the Schedule provides plenty of scope for exhibiting, particularly in the 'Villagers Only (WR12 Villages)' sections (Vegetables and Flowers). So please 'have a go' this year and help to ensure that the Show is as successful - or even more so - than in 2012.

Exhibits are staged in the Marquee between 8am and 10 am then, after judging is complete, the Show opens to the Public at 1pm. As in previous years, the Chipping Campden Swing Band will be playing and various charitable organisations will have stalls on the Green, plus refreshments. Even if you are unable to exhibit at the Show, please come along and bring the Sunshine with you.

For further information or schedules/entry forms, please ring me, Roger Bailey (Show Secretary) on 01386 852872 or email broadwayshow@hotmail.co.uk.

NEWS FROM ST MARY'S CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL, BROADWAY.

We have experienced a busy and exciting curriculum this year, with many achievements to be proud of. We have been very pleased to work alongside Budgens, Prego and the Design Centre at Draycote to enable our pupils to learn a variety of skills in an innovative way. From achieving our 'Outstanding' Ofsted in the autumn term through to celebrating the Year of Faith and the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion in our final term of this academic year, we have been very proud of our hardworking pupils and staff. Thanks must go to the various organisations in Broadway who have supported us with our fundraising attempts this year. This has enabled us to become close to achieving a new updated ICT suite and equipment. We very much appreciate the excellent community support we are given. Our Open Afternoon will be held in the autumn term to which we warmly invite all members of the community to visit us. Sarah Munn - Head of School

CLLR LIZ EYRE RE-ELECTED - THANKYOU

I was returned with a generous majority and thank everyone who supported me. I retain a position on the Cabinet with a slightly expanded portfolio responsible for Children and Families.

FISH HILL - YOUR RESPONSES TO THE QUERY ABOUT ITS NAME -

With regards to INFORMATION WANTED by Nick Frost about the origin of the naming of Fish Hill, I was always lead to believe that many years ago there were two large pools on the hill going out of Broadway. The Abbots of Pershore Abbey kept fish in these pools and when the coach and horses travelled the hill on the main London Road, they would sell their fish to the occupants of the coaches, and from this it became known as FISH HILL.

As far as I am aware, the name derived from the fossilised fish that could be found on the escarpment, these having been deposited during the erosion of ground that formed the vale of Evesham and the Severn estuary. I am certainly no geologist, but the area of the vale would have been fully submerged at one point (hence the fish).

When digging the road up Fish Hill, the remains of a fossilised fish was uncovered and that's where the road got its name.

Long ago, when travellers risked getting robbed by thieves who lay in wait for them as they made their way up Fish Hill, it was their custom, as good Christians, to give thanks when they reached the summit, and to draw the Christian sign of the fish on the ground to show their safe arrival.

Many thanks to our readers who supplied these answers to Nick Frost's query - take your pick!

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

THE OLD COACH PUBLIC HOUSE, HIGH STREET - MISSING SIGN

Following the recent article about replacing the sign, the general response received is that a sign indicating the site of the former public house is the preferred option. It is, however, understood that the former sign still exists; if anyone has the sign or knows where it is, please contact the Parish Clerk, Kevin Beasley, on 01386 854813 or email:

HISTORIC PHOTOGRAPHS OF BROADWAY STATION

I am one of the volunteers working to rebuild the station at Broadway. We hope to bring it back to as near as original condition as possible.

On the historical side, we are working to set up a database at www.broadwaystation.co.uk with everything that we know about the station's history. We know that it was demolished in November 1963, but so far we have found only a small number of photographs of it. We would like to appeal to readers for any photographs they have of the station, any anecdotes, and any items that they may have that relate to it.

These can be brought to the station any Wednesday or Saturday when we are at work there, or sent by email to jroesen@sky.com. We are happy to return any original photographs, should we be permitted to scan them.

Many thanks for your help. Jo Roesen, Volunteer, GWSR Broadway Area Group, 07794 906583

BROADWAY FIRST SCHOOL HEADMASTER - AN APPRECIATION

It is with much sadness that we are saying goodbye to our head teacher Mr. Appleby after 24 years. He has been a pivotal part of our school community with his commitment, energy and creativity. From dressing up and entertaining the children (and staff!) each year in our pantomime, to organising countless sporting events and writing a new script for each annual show, Mr. Appleby has been a very supportive and conscientious head under whom the children have flourished. He has always put their well being first and has encouraged them to aspire to achieve, whilst his calm and kind manner underpins our school ethos, "Where happiness breeds success".

We, as a staff, will miss his sense of humour, guidance and empathy and we wish him a happy and fulfilling retirement.

SAVE BROADWAY CAMPAIGN RECENT MEETING

In the continuing opposition to a major development on 10 acres of AONB land to the west of Leamington Road, the committee of Save Broadway Campaign arranged a public meeting at St Michael's church on May 21, attended by over 200 people. The objective was to update residents on the current state of planning application APP/13/00/680/ and how to object.

The Chairman, Gordon Franks, opening the meeting, stated 'This is a watershed moment. The original application from Spitfire Developments had now doubled in size to 125 units, comprising 75 open market houses, a 40 person care home and 10 affordable bungalows. In addition, the Averil Road site, despite an earlier rejection, may receive a new application for around 60 houses from a national firm.'

Widening the context, he went on to explain that there were 1330 new homes proposed for development within 15 minutes of Broadway. Absorbing traffic from these on the existing country roads would create additional problems.

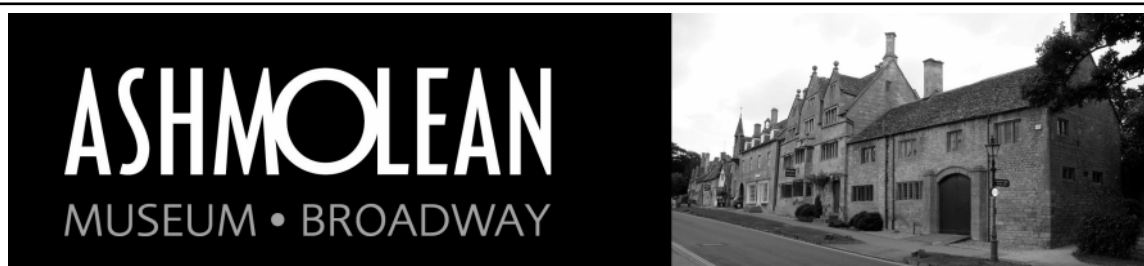

Committee members in turn gave impressive power point presentations on how the Leamington Road site would affect people's homes and quality of life. 'Irreparable damage will be done to the village's historic sense of place and heritage, and will deprive future generations of what we have taken for granted.'

In his summing up the Chairman said, 'The Parish Council, Broadway Trust and Save Broadway Campaign would all object separately to the Leamington Road development. Any increase in housing stock should be in small developments for the benefit of people living in Broadway.'

He urged all attending the meeting to write to or email Wychavon District Council with their objections and also to be sure to encourage friends and neighbours to support this protest.

Plans of the site, together with a comprehensive review of all aspects of the development proposals by Cllr Liz Eyre, can be seen at the Parish Council office in Russell Square. So, how many of our readers contacted Wychavon about the development? If you didn't, does that mean you approve of it? Let us know your views!

OPENING DATE CONFIRMED FOR THE NEW ASHMOLEAN MUSEUM BROADWAY

The new museum will be open to the public on Saturday 7th September 2013

The Ashmolean is working in partnership with Worcestershire County Council, the Keil family, heritage groups and other local stakeholders, to transform a historic house in the Cotswold village of Broadway, Worcestershire, into a new museum: The Ashmolean at Broadway.

The Ashmolean at Broadway will open on 7th September 2013 and will display objects from the 17th to the 21st centuries, including from the founding Tradescant collections of the Ashmolean Museum.

The Museum will be open 10am - 5pm on Tuesday - Sunday. The entry cost is still being revised, but is currently set at £6 per adult and £5 concessions. There are other discounts available for visitors from the local area.

The Museum will be run by a House Manager and we are advertising the position now - for more information please go to the Ashmolean Museum Vacancies page. <http://www.ashmolean.org/about/vacancies/>

The Museum also has opportunities for people to help as Volunteers in the Display Rooms and also on the Front Desk, Shop, Friends and Fundraising activities. Many thanks to those who have already signed up as volunteers! We have a schedule of get-togethers and training days throughout the Summer in order to prepare for opening in September. If you are interested in joining the team and have not signed up yet, there is still time - contact Victoria McGuinness directly. We need a minimum of 5 volunteers each day.

Group visits are also encouraged and we have planned our displays to be relevant to school groups and many other audiences.

Links with the other Heritage Attractions in the local area are being developed and we are keen to begin a discounted joint ticket offer. We are very grateful to the Gordon Russell Museum, Snowhill Manor, Court Barn, Broadway Tower and the Almonry in Evesham who have already worked with us over the course of the project.

You can join as a 'Friend of the Ashmolean Museum Broadway' (£25 per year) and we are still looking for funding support for the final fundraising target. If you would like to become a 'Benefactor of the Ashmolean Museum Broadway' or one of the Founding Corporate Sponsors. Please contact Liz Eyre elizabethaeyre@gmail.com

We have a Museum Fundraising Lunch at the Broadway Hotel at 12 on Wednesday 10th July 2013 - £29 per person. Tables seat 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 or 12 people. Please book your table by Wednesday 3 July 2013. For more information, contact Sonia Woolven - 01386 852211 or swoolven@btinternet.com

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE COMES TO BROADWAY LIBRARY!

From Saturday 13th July, children aged 4 - 11 will be able to join the Summer Reading Challenge at Broadway Library. Collect spooktastic gifts along the way including stickers, bookmarks and key fobs for every 2 books read! Help a gang of young detectives investigate clues to solve the creepy house whodunnit and follow a trail through three different zones. Dare you explore the 'Awful Upstairs', can you brave the 'Gruesome Ground floor' and will you chill in the 'Spine-tingling Cellar'?

Don't forget to call into the library from Saturday 13th July to join in the fun. A certificate is attained on completion of the challenge followed by a medal ceremony at the end of the summer - that is, if you survive the challenge of the Creepy House.....mwa ha ha!

The Sun Shines on Broadways 2nd Annual Vintage Car Show

Broadway Village Green was buzzing with hundreds of visitors there to see an eclectic mix of over 36 Vintage & Classic Cars. High quality brands such as Aston Martin, Bentley and Rolls Royce were a big hit with the visitors. The Evesham Avonbank Brass Band kept the spectators happy with foot tapping renditions of 'The Great Escape' and 'The Floral Dance' and many more memorable hits from a bygone era. Organiser Neil Hilton said 'It was great to see so many people here to support the show especially with some of the exhibitors who were dressed in period costumes'

The Gloucestershire Warwickshire Railway and The Ashmolean Broadway Museum who had stalls at the show, both received an enormous amount of support from the visiting spectators.
