HMS BROADWAY'S BELL MAKES A HISTORIC JOURNEY

On Saturday 26th September three residents of Broadway made an historic journey to Burnham-on-Sea in Somerset. They were transporting the original ship's bell from the destroyer HMS Broadway, formerly USS Hunt, to the official unveiling ceremony of two plaques on the Esplanade sea wall by Captain Michael Garrick, USN, from the American Embassy in London. This was followed by a civic reception at the Princess Theatre, where the bell was displayed in all its splendour. It was afterwards returned to its permanent home in the village, at the Lygon Arms hotel, where it has been kept ever since Donald Russell offered it safe keeping when he managed the hotel, after the decommissioning of the destroyer.

The ceremony commemorated the transfer of fifty WW1 American destroyers, part of the USA/UK Lend and Lease agreement in 1940 to help our floundering war effort. Known as 'Gift Horses', the role of the destroyers was to protect our convoys crossing the North Atlantic.

HMS Broadway had a distinguished record; probably her greatest achievement was in May 1941 when she took part in the capture of U boat 110 and the seizing of an Enigma machine complete with codebook - a seminal event for Bletchley Park, though its significance was not realised at the time.

The history of this special naval connection of Broadway with the sea and to the Second World War is commemorated on the north wall of St Michael's church, along with a memorial to other fallen war heroes of the village. A facsimile of the ship's crest donated by the people of Broadway is also displayed there. (But do watch out for the small step if you go to have a look.)

Councillor Neville Jones OBE, of Burnham-on-Sea, the founder and organiser of the project, was aided by the American Embassy and the Prime Minister's Office. Connie Wilson, representing the Parish Council, and Michael and Pat Blanchard, who helped with the research, attended on behalf of the village. They would like to give their grateful thanks to all who contributed valuable information.

BROADWAY FIRST SCHOOL

Christmas is almost upon us, and it's been a busy term again.

Our new reception children and parents were welcomed by all in September; our very successful 'book and biscuit' sessions allow the children and parents to get to know the school and also give parents suggestions for helping their children with reading.

This term we have set some school values and the children have written a school song all about these values. One of our values is ambition; we are ambitious for all our learners, and last year we were very proud of our children, especially as all our Year 2 children achieved level 2 or above in the Year 2 SATs, and more children in Reception achieved 'expected' or above in the Early Years Profile Assessments.

Our children love taking part in community events; this term they entered competitions in both the Horticultural Show and the Food Festival. They won top places in all the categories they entered and pictures of their entries can be seen on the Broadway First School website.

We have also been enjoying making links with other schools. We will be having a stall together with Willersey Primary School at the first late night shopping event in Broadway, where we will be selling jams and chutneys made for us by a local company from produce collected by the children. Closer to Christmas, the children of both schools will no doubt be shouting 'He's behind you' as they enjoy a pantomime together at the Lifford Hall.

We hope everyone has a very happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

THOMAS HODGES FOUNDATION

The trustees wish to remind everyone about the Thomas Hodges Foundation and the funding that is available for the benefit of children and young persons who are resident in the parish of Broadway.

Funding is available for those who are going to university or other places of learning approved by the trustees and also to assist entry into a profession or trade.

If anyone would like to apply for such funding please contact the clerk, in writing, giving details of the proposed studies or profession.

BROADWAY YOUTH CLUB UPDATE

I am pleased to report that we are gradually making progress with the refurbishment and renewal of the premises and equipment. The speed with which we can do this does, however, depend on the raising and availability of the necessary funding.

This summer, nevertheless, we have managed to refurbish and install new toilet facilities (including facilities for the disabled), and thanks to the support of an extremely generous benefactor we will shortly be carrying out much-needed repairs and additional refurbishments and decorations to the fabric of the premises.

With regard to fund-raising, I would like to take this opportunity to thank those traders in the village who have generously donated gifts and prizes for our fund-raising events, and other villagers who have made generous donations. Your kind support is greatly appreciated.

Due to successful fund-raising activities during the last 12 months we are now able to provide more opportunities and facilities for the club members. When funds allow we will be increasing these sorts of activities in the future.

I am delighted to report that we are attracting more and more members to the club, and numbers now stand at 48, which is a threefold increase in the last 12 months.

Finally, I would mention that we will be holding our Annual General Meeting at the club on the 25th November at 7.00pm, and I would like to extend a welcome to anyone who is interested in helping or supporting the club in any way, or wishes to see where we are and what goes on. The club is situated off the Leamington Road near Broadway First School, and if, in the meantime, anyone wants any information or has any queries concerning the Club please feel free to call me on 853941.

Incidentally, the club premises are available for hiring (at very reasonable rates) should any organisation, group or club etc require premises for meetings, rehearsals or whatever. For further information please contact me on the above number.

Antony Holmes (Vice Chairman of the Broadway Youth Club, and a member of Broadway Parish Council)

NEWS FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

As we head towards Christmas we thought it would be good for you to know what your Parish Council has been doing towards the Christmas celebrations in Broadway. At the last meeting, a grant was approved which will pay for proper electrical connections to be made for the lights in the trees, plus three more strings of lights. So many people love the lights, it really makes the village look magical, and we felt this was a really worthwhile cause.

Other projects that the Parish Council have supported include:-

A new sign outside the old Coach and Horses, Doug Eyre did the art work for this and the sign was made by Jeff Humpage.

A grant to the Youth Club to enable them to maintain and enhance their toilet facilities.

A grant to Broadway Bowling Club for replacement guttering on the club house.

Financial support to the Broadway Food Festival, which proved to be a very successful event.

So many people have been enjoying the Activity Park that some of the equipment is suffering from wear and tear and is now in need of replacement. We will be arranging replacement items in the coming months so that our lovely park is kept fully open and enjoyable for all. We really appreciate the support given by John Hankinson and his team in keeping the Activity Park neat, tidy and in working order.

The Parish Council is fully supporting the legal challenge in the High Court regarding the land on Leamington Road. This will be heard on November 10; we will let you know the result in the next newsletter.

Members of the Parish Council have met with officers from the District Council to discuss the Neighbourhood Plan. Further meetings will be arranged, and if anyone feels that they have something to contribute to the production of the plan, please contact the clerk (Kevin Beasley) or Councillor Gordon Franks.

The Council is aware that sometimes there is a proliferation of posters and banners around the village. Please could organisers of events/shows use a minimum of posters, put them up no more than two weeks in advance, and remove them as soon as possible after the event. Your co-operation is very much appreciated and if you have any queries then please speak to our parish clerk.

The next Parish Council Meeting is on December 10 at 7pm in the Parish Office; as always members of the public are welcome to attend.

If you need any more information or you have any issues that you think the Parish Council could help you with, please don't hesitate to contact the clerk between 10am and 1pm Monday to Friday.

BROADWAY COMMUNITY AWARD 2015

Each year the Parish Council invites nominations in respect of the above Award, which was originally proposed by Dr. Walter Wentz in 2001, in order to recognise the efforts of our residents who do so much for the village without personal reward or benefit.

As of last year, the Parish Council has decided to give everyone in the village the opportunity to take part and would welcome nominations giving reasons for choosing the person in writing on no more than one side of A4 paper. Every organisation in the village has unpaid committee members who voluntarily give up their time to provide all the excellent resources Broadway has to offer. Would you like to nominate one of these worthy people for this Award? If so, please submit nominations to the Clerk, Parish Council Office, 5 Russell Square, High Street, Broadway WR12 7AP, or email broadway.parish.council@unibox.co.uk to be received no later than 1st December.

The winner each year has their name inscribed on a plaque which is displayed in the Parish Council office, and will be invited to nominate an individual group, charity, or similar body they wish to support, and the Parish Council will present a cheque for £100 to the nominated recipient.

NORTH COTSWOLD U3A GARDENING GROUP

The group meets at the Childswickham Memorial Hall on the second Friday of the month from 10am-12 noon. If you would like to know more then please get in touch with either Pat Boulter, on 852720, or Barbara Horden on the same number.

The next meeting is on November 13, and is a talk on 'Garden Design' by Jane Ewers, who works at Hidcote Gardens and is a garden designer.

The Broadway Garden Club will be holding its final meeting before closing on Monday November 30. There will be a talk by Jan Dolphin on 'Floral Art for the Festive Season' which will be followed by a festive drink and mince pies.

Lighting Strikes Twice

Like many, we were struck by lightning. What would have been catastrophic for most, proved to be merely inconvenient.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT....

Having sent in a spoof planning application as the last issue's contribution, imagine my surprise when a copy of plans to build a car park in one of the fields at the rear of the Back Passage appeared on my doormat. Stranger than fiction! Well a meeting was hastily arranged and views discussed. And, at present, no plans have appeared.....we have been saved by the appearance in the field of Japanese Knotweed, it has been sprayed and is dying but dying could take 3 years.....au revoir car park, j'espere.....

My other gripe is charity bags, you fill them, put them out and no one collects them The current bag is three bags deep. Oh, you smirk, you shouldn't live in a back alley.

And finally, Barking (could only be!) Council will be the first council in the country to use 'pooprint' technology(trademarked) to identify dogs who mess in the streets. From April next year, nation wide all dogs have to be microchipped and it is intended, in Barking, to "to have a scheme going with local veterinarians where people can get the swab and chip done together". The council plans to introduce a public space protection order(PSPO) to make testing compulsory. Don't believe this? Well, it comes from The Guardian (28 April 2015) not the Daily Mail.

JIM SCHMITZ

The Barbara Baker interview

I talked with Jim Schmitz to get a perspective on life in Broadway from a relative newcomer, who lives here with his wife and young son, has set up his own business and is passionate about the village and its inhabitants.

"The question a lot of people ask when they first meet me and hear my voice is 'Are you enjoying visiting Broadway?' I am originally from Ohio, in the U.S.

I trained and worked as a journalist, particularly in radio and television. My first big TV job lasted only six months because the news announcer left to star in 'The Jerry Springer Show'! But that got me interested in communications and I went back to college, three years before people knew the term World Wide Web. I did some research work and was picked up by AT&T, the company founded by Alexander Graham Bell, and spent nearly a decade travelling across the Americas in different roles, eventually entertaining corporate dignitaries across the Continent. I met my wife, Micaela, who is a musician, and we married in New York. Soon after we moved to Holland, but after two years I grew tired of lager and buses. A friend, Ian Harper, who created the original Broadway Village Website and helped get the Newsletter off the ground, recommended Broadway. I found an old property on Leamington Road, in need of repair and we have been slowly refurbishing it since 2003.

In 2005 I decided I was spending way too much time on the road so I started a very tiny company, Permutation, which helps small local businesses with their technology needs. If I had to give one piece of advice to an individual or business it would be to back up your computer. Eventually your precious work, pictures, letters, will be corrupted or disappear, whether it be a virus, a glass of water, a fire - just backing up periodically will keep them safe.

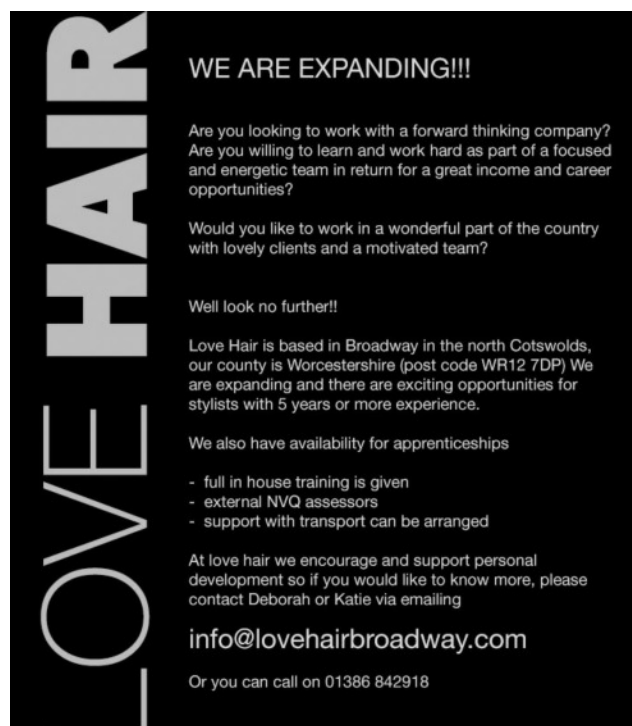

I work from home or directly at the customer's business. So, generally, Micaela and I can be happy living anywhere, but then our son, Max, was born and we wanted to provide the best environment we could. We began to consider where and how we lived and that is where Broadway really shines. I grew up on the outskirts of Cincinnati, roughly the same distance, geographically and culturally as Broadway is from Birmingham, so the idea of community and knowing your neighbours was quite familiar to me. I also like that Broadway is a large, working village. People could spend their whole lives only going ten miles away and have all their needs supplied.

We were lucky to get involved in a lot of things early on, like the Broadway Parish Plan, which got us out into the community. So when we began to think about what kind of people we wanted Max to be around on a regular basis, a lot of our friends and neighbours were great candidates. Many people in Broadway have a healthy respect for ongoing education; there is a love of the outdoors and exercise. People here are often much older than they appear, which is always a good sign! Also, many are extraordinarily kind.

When Max was born, Micaela was seriously ill and had a very extensive stay in hospital. When you are trying to run a small business, watch over a newborn and visit your wife in hospital every day it is taxing, but a lot of local people helped - some were friends and some, at the time, we barely knew. They volunteered to baby-sit, bring food, do my laundry and they made it possible for us to survive the first couple of months. Micaela was actually still in hospital when Max was baptised. The doctors had no idea when, or if, she would be coming out. A friend from Alcester, Father Richard Jones, performed the baptism and other people organised everything else. Friends and neighbours, both Catholic and non-Catholic, attended. The Broadway community is one where we feel not just welcome, but at home.

Max now goes to The Little Friends of St Mary's School twice a week and he has been to lots of the early year activities at the Children's Centre, next to Broadway First School. We also have a top-notch activity centre: Broadway is very child and adult friendly. When I return to the US I miss the ability to wander out of my house to a restaurant or pub and then walk back home. I miss interesting neighbours and friends - people that I hope will inspire Max and make him think, 'That's what I want to be when I grow up.' "
