CRIME CORNER

Question: Why does there seem to be so much crime – major and minor – in Broadway at the moment?

Eddie Vicke : Broadway has always been a bit of a problem for policing, being situated on the outskirts of the West Mercia division, and there is a perception of being isolated. Many people still remember the days when there were police houses in the village with a sergeant and two bobbies but those days are gone forever. However, there remains a view that we are not getting our fair share of resources. This has coincided with a period of increased criminal activity. We have been targeted by professional criminals who have seen the village as vulnerable and with less chance of being caught. Lesser incidents have been caused by locals – many of them teenagers – who have probably been drinking and see vandalism and anti-social behaviour as something they could get away with.

Q: So what are we doing about both sorts of crime?

EV: Well, a number of things have been going on. After a series of burglaries and ram raids I wrote to our local MP, Peter Luff and his response led to, among other things, a meeting with the Chief Constable, Peter West. This was quite unprecedented and we won a key concession to increase night patrols in the village. The coming of CCTV on the High Street will also help us fight crime.

Q: But what about juvenile crime?

EV: This requires a different approach, more carrot and stick. The young people who vandalise complain that they have nothing to do so we are working with our county councillor, Liz Eyre, to help provide more facilities. If a minority fail to respond we hope a hard line will be adopted by the police.

Q: What about day-to-day policing in the village?

EV: Our lobbying has helped re-define the role of local police. Instead of the local officer servicing eight or nine villages, he or she will now only be responsible for Broadway, Wickhamford and Childswickham. This is major step forward and gives us more personal contact with our police officer who will always have a back-up in place. Plus, there will also be two Community Police Officers who will be able to deal with low key problems. We will also have a Neighbourhood Warden and a Youth Worker all helping to support the new set-up.

Reading. Now that is something Bertie can recommend to anyone of any age. It has certainly stood Bertie in good stead for a number of years. In fact Bertie is a member of a very fine Broadway Reading Group which meets every second Tuesday in Garford's – at 8-15 in the morning to boot! Every month a different book is digested and discussed. Now Bertie hears of a scheme for youngsters to read a book a week! Broadway Library will be holding weekly story sessions and activity sessions throughout the summer holidays. Children aged 4-12 will also be able to take part in The Reading Mission – a scheme which encourages children to read a book a week during the summer holidays. Certificates and medals are awarded to children who read six books. More details are available from the library on 858747. I am assured the first book will not be Tolstoy's War and Peace!

Bertie is all in favour of public transport. He only wishes it was a bit better. As a lad he would walk miles to school, sole of shoe flapping on the road as he trudged the weary furlongs. Now I hear of a new bus service from Broadway to Worcester serving four Independent schools. It will start in September and serve the Kings School, the Royal Grammar School, St Mary's Convent and the Alice Ottley. Further details from www.thegreenbus.org or 01527 578641.
